Can't we get on with things and settle. It's obvious to me that the States holding out for a bigger settlement all have business interests in seeing Microsoft hurt further (ie Utah, Oracle). Tell those states I wouldn't buy any of their winey products, just because they can't compete without a tilted playing field. Please urge them to settle or you will throw them back to ground zero and dismiss all gains agreed to by the other states. jimfurlong@hotmail.com Get more from the Web.
